PROGRAM DISMISSAL FORM

ABOUT THIS FORM: Program dismissal applies to post-baccalaureate and graduate students who fail to meet the required program-specific standards/requirements (such as benchmarks, final projects, thesis, tests, etc.) as outlined by the academic program in which they are matriculated. If the academic program coordinators determine and can document that a student has failed to meet one or more of the program’s established program-specific standards/requirements such that they are not able to progress in their post-bac or graduate-level program, the academic program coordinators have the right to propose program dismissal using the Global Learning & Partnerships Program Dismissal Form.

Examples of situations in which a program may propose program dismissal include but are not limited to:

- failure to successfully pass a benchmark/required testing
- failure to successfully complete a required field experience/practicum/internship/supervised placement
- inability to continue and/or return to a placement situation based upon the evaluation of the supervisor
- failure to successfully demonstrate appropriate student dispositions as outlined by the program’s professional standards

Program Dismissal and Student Options

Program dismissal officially ends the student’s matriculation at Rowan University and prevents them from registering for future coursework (without re-application). It is recorded in the student record but, unlike university academic dismissal, it is not noted on the official Rowan transcript. Program dismissal is effective immediately and prohibits registration for any future term. Any registration for a future term will be dropped and the student will be made inactive in the system. Students who are dismissed by the program forfeit grants, fellowships, graduate assistantships, and/or scholarship aid that may be in effect at the time.

Program dismissal is possible even if the student still meets the Global Learning & Partnerships minimum standards for Satisfactory Academic Progress.

The Program Coordinator(s) confirms that:
